

The sale that reduces for a day the high cost of merchandise

We believe this to be one of the most helpful occasions of the entire month, especially so now, when everything in wearing apparel and staple dry goods bears a high retail price.

These Opportunity Sales have never stopped, not even during the war, but have continued from month to month for many years to give unlimited opportunities to women in choosing many of the thousand and one things to be obtained in a dry goods store at prices to meet practically every predetermined plan of expenditure.

Tomorrow this sale presents hundreds and hundreds of lots of apparel, Accessories, fabrics, household and housefurnishing merchandise

At a Fourth, a Third and a Half

The many hundreds of special lots throughout the store will be designated from the rest of our stocks by Opportunity Signs and everywhere these signs are to be found there will be merchandise of the highest order, priced at less than any retail prices fixed in some time.

NO SIGN OF FLU, BUT BE CAREFUL

Steps to prevent an epidemic of influenza are being taken by the federal railroad administration. A bulletin issued by D. Z. Dunoff, chairman of the health and medical relief committee of the railroad administration at Washington, authorized by Walker D. Hines, director-general, states that while there is no occasion for alarm, every precautionary measure possible should be taken to head off an outbreak of the disease. The bulletin outlines rules to be followed regarding ventilation and sanitation for all departments of railroad work. Local railroad officials received the bulletin Wednesday.

WHY GRAY FADED HAIR?

It is Unnecessary Nowadays With the Advance of Scientific and Harmless Discovery of Q-Ban Hair Color Restorer.

Is it absolutely safe to use? By all means—yes. You may use Q-Ban (pronounced Ju-Ban) Hair Color Restorer for darkening gray hair without the slightest fear of injury to the hair, scalp or eyes, as it contains none of the injurious elements of the ordinary hair dye, making it as harmless to the hair and scalp as ordinary water.

Will it soil the hands or scalp? No, it will not. Q-Ban Hair Color Restorer for darkening gray hair is an especially clean, convenient treatment—not being sticky or greasy. It restores original color so naturally and evenly no one will be able to tell you are using anything.

How is it applied? Very easily. Just wet your hair with it and allow to dry in good, fresh air. Nothing hard about that, is there? Apply on hair once daily and day by day observe the hair becoming darker and darker. All your hair will then remain that way without a trace of gray showing.

Can the darkened color wash or rub off? The color will not wash off. Shampoo the hair all you like—you may even use a hot curling iron, as not even that will affect the color. Q-Ban Hair Color Restorer is the latest and really only harmless discovery for darkening gray hair and keeping the hair healthy. Sold by druggists, adv.

JUDGE LITTLE DIES ON ST. LOUIS BOUND TRAIN

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Oct. 29.—Judge Paul Little, of Fort Smith, Ark., who was shot by his brother-in-law, Guy Williams, Saturday night when mistaken for a burglar, died on board a train at 12:15 a.m. Wednesday while en route to a St. Louis hospital for treatment. The body will be returned to Fort Smith from Springfield, Mo., today and burial will probably be at Greenwood, Ark. He had been circuit judge at Fort Smith for three years. Before dying he issued a statement, exonerating his brother-in-law from blame.

POOBAH

Poobah was supposed to be able to fill a dozen jobs at the same time.

Almost any of us can do what "Poobah" did; we can build our own house, make our own clothes, raise our own foodstuffs—but we will never do all of these things well and we will have to work about twenty-three hours a day to even get along.

The telephone company has no "Poobah;" but it has the best workers it can secure, the best operators, linemen, engineers and mechanics; and it must pay these people what they are worth if it is going to keep them.

So long as you pay a fair telephone rate, we will be able to give you telephone service.

ITCH!

A War-Time Ill That's Spreading
Hunt's Salve Cures It!

BRED in the war trenches of Europe, a wave of ordinary ITCH is spreading over the country. This skin disease, history shows, has always prevailed, following wars and the concentration of armies. It was common during the Civil War and following that conflict. There was an epidemic of the Itch after the Spanish-American War. Now history is repeating itself after the great European struggle.

Returned soldiers and those with whom they come in contact will find a recognized remedy for the Itch in Hunt's Salve, commonly known as "Hunt's Itch Cure." Many a veteran of the late 90's will testify to its merits.

If directions are followed HUNT'S SALVE will prove a never failing cure for all forms of the Itch, your druggist will tell you so. He sells HUNT'S SALVE under a strict guarantee to refund the purchase price (75c) to any dissatisfied user.

A Medford, Oklahoma man, among thousands who praise HUNT'S SALVE, says:

"Some people dislike to call it the Itch, but candor compels me to admit I had it badly. Your Hunt's Salve, however, cured me after many other remedies had totally failed. One box completed the cure—the first application afforded wonderful relief. My advice to those who have to scratch, is to use Hunt's Salve."

Hunt's Salve is especially compounded for the treatment of Itch, Eczema, Ringworm, Tetter and other itching skin diseases and is sold on our guarantee locally only by
